No One Forgotten

It’s so easy to take each other for granted. I often forget to tell my teachers how much I appreciate all the extras they do for Beacon and all the hours they put in above and beyond what they are paid for. Sometimes I forget to thank our janitors and those who mow our lawns or volunteer to fix/build things or help out in the office.

I forget to thank the students for working hard to keep up with their work and our parents, who drive their children to school each day and help them with homework, volunteer to teach art, help sponsor field trips and fund raisers, or volunteer in other ways. I forget to thank our school board members and our churches who support us financially. I’ve probably forgotten someone even now, but there’s One I definitely do not want to forget. Another David said it so well: “Praise the Lord, my soul, and forget not all his benefits.” (Ps. 103:2)

Thanking God for YOU, David Gage
